The Beacon

Light for Our City

September 10, 2009

Dear Jason,

At Logos Academy, we think of our students, parents, donors, prayer partners, volunteers, and all of our stakeholders as family. Families certainly have their disputes and challenges, but they work together and build one another up.

During a conversation with a former parent who had to relocate to another state, the mother expressed her sincere gratitude for Logos Academy's support and how it has changed her family. "Regardless of where we are, Logos is still our family," she said.

Logos Academy strives to be a Kingdom family, with servant hearts, seeking God's will. We feel privileged that you have joined us for the journey.
