Major Responsibilities

- 1. Plan and implement grade-level lessons and assessments in support of the curricular scope and sequence
  - a. All daily lessons should be Christ-centered: helping students to recognize the beauty wonder, order, and goodness of all things in God's world and His story, over which Jesus Christ reigns as creator, sustainer, and savior
  - b. Model, demonstrate, and embody the values and goals expressed in our Portrait of a Graduate for all students throughout the school day, in and out of the classroom
  - c. Contribute to the regular assessment and improvement of our curricular scope and sequence within your areas of instruction at the direction of Lead Teachers and the Principals
  - d. Assess student progress in line with curricular benchmarks, identify remedial needs, and maintain academic records
- 2. Develop and maintain a formative classroom environment and culture
  - a. Classroom setup and decorations should embody the grade-level curricular content and celebrate student work in a way that is inviting, intriguing, home-like, and orderly
  - b. Students should be clearly aware of teacher expectations and authority during every activity and transition throughout the school day and culture should follow predictable rhythms of activity (moving between lively and restful)
  - c. Implement all school policy and practices with regard to behavior
  - d. Maintain behavioral records for regular parent communications, student records, and any outside professional assessment of students (requested by parents and approved by the school)
- 3. Maintain parent partnership through regular communications and at least one parent-teacher-conferences per year (communicating all results to the Principals)
- 4. Maintain, regular, professional, and Christ-like communications with colleagues, lead teacher, office staff, and school administration
- 5. Receive and implement all direction from the Lead Teachers and Principals with enthusiasm and humility
